The funeral of J. J. Curren of Chicago, who died Friday morning at St. Anthony's sanitarium, occurred yesterday afternoon from the chapel of the Las Vegas Undertaking company. Interment was in the Masonic cemetery. The services were held by the Las Vegas Lodge of Masons. The pall bearers were: Dr. Flint, James Rutledge, W. J. Davis, William Hart, M. B. McPhate and E. L. Blehl.

Seat reservations for the concert of the glee club of the Crinnell College for Girls, to be given Friday night at the Duncan opera house, will be opened to Santa Fe employees tomorrow at 12:30 o'clock. Contrary to previous announcements regarding the price of seats, 10 cents will be charged for all reserved seats in the house and five cents for unreserved seats in the gallery of the theater. Reservation for the general public will open Friday morning.

Claude Hadrick died yesterday at the Las Vegas hospital after a long illness. Mr. Hadrick came to Las Vegas 13 months ago from Kansas for his health and has been a patient at the hospital during that time. He was 42 years of age, and is survived by a sister, Mrs. O. Hermanson, who lives in Kansas City, Kan. The body will lie in the undertaking establishment of J. C. Johnsen & Company until word is received from Mrs. Hermanson.

From a Strictly Sanitary Point

you will do well to send your family washing to us. Consider these reasons:

First. We launder your clothes in clean, sanitary surroundings.

Second. We launder them by a process that is scientifically perfect. It really disinfects as well as cleanses your clothes.

Third. You know when your garments are sent to us they are not being worn by anyone.

Fourth. Our service is prompt and regular. Weather, sickness, holidays—none of these affect it.

Fifth. It costs you little more.

Try us.

A marriage license was issued this morning at the court house to Francisquita Esquivel, aged 19 and Juan Martinez, aged 24. Both are residents of Roclada and evidently are not superstitious regarding "April Fool."

Remarkable vitality is being shown by Mrs. Albertina Lesperance, who, although 95 years of age, is reported to be recovering from the effects of a painful accident, in which she suffered the fracture of both limbs and one arm. Mrs. Lesperance resides in the country 14 miles northeast of Wagon Mound. She has relatives in Las Vegas.

Dr. Frank H. H. Roberts, president of the New Mexico Normal University, will spend his vacation making speeches. Thursday night he will address the Bernalillo County Medical society in Albuquerque. Saturday night he will speak in Raton and early next week he will make an address at Cimarron.

I desire to announce to the people of Las Vegas and vicinity that I have engaged in the fire insurance business. Business entrusted to me will have prompt attention. I will also handle rentals and real estate. A liberal patronage will be appreciated. Office at present will be with the Mills Abstract Co., West Bridge street, Las Vegas, N. M. Telephone 379.

H. S. VAN PETTEN.

The Ladies Altar Society of the Church of the Immaculate Conception will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Koebel on Fifth street. All members are requested to be present and attention is called to the fact that the meeting is to be held on Tuesday instead of Wednesday, the usual day.

Yesterday morning at about 11 o'clock, a fire which resulted from a defective flue between the apartments of George Hunker and Fred Reuther in Job flats, slightly damaged the porches in the rear of the building. The East side department and several of the firemen from the E. Romero company turned out and the blaze was soon extinguished. The partition between the two porches, which are two stories high, was burned and parts of the structures were scorched.

Robert Miller was arrested last night by Night Officer Ed Ward on the charge of stealing articles of clothing from the room of R. W. Lynch in the Closson house, 408 Grand avenue. Mr. Lynch's room was entered and robbed Saturday night and Mr. Lynch furnished the police with a description of the man whom he suspected of being guilty. Officer Ward made the arrest of Miller in the north end of town. When arrested Miller was wearing some of the stolen clothing. This morning when arraigned before Judge D. R. Murray, he pleaded guilty to a part of the charge and was bound to the grand jury under $500 bond. The articles which Miller is charged with stealing are one suit, one safety razor, one pair of shoes, two neckties, and one coat.

FRANK SCHMIDT DEAD.

Frank Schmidt died yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at his home, 712 Seventh street. Mr. Schmidt has been in poor health for some time. His death came suddenly, while his wife was away from home. Mr. Schmidt was 33 years of age, and was a native of New Jersey, having come to Las Vegas four years ago from Weehawke for the benefit of his health. He is survived by a wife, Mrs. Christine Coleman Schmidt, to whom he was married on November 26, 1902, a child Otilla, 3 years of age, and a sister, Mrs. Joseph Kury of Weehawke, N. J. The body will be prepared for burial by the Las Vegas Undertaking company and will lie in the chapel until word is received from Mr. Schmidt's sister. In all probability the body will be sent to Weehawke for burial.

MASS MEETING AT THE COURT HOUSE TONIGHT

REPUBLICANS WILL GIVE VOTERS SOME INTERESTING INFORMATION

A mass meeting of the residents of the four wards of the town of Las Vegas will be held this evening in the court house. The West side republicans will have charge of the meeting and everybody is invited to be present. Some facts regarding the coming election will be stated for the information of the voters. There will be speeches by leading republicans and the republican candidates for municipal offices. The meeting will be of interest to all residents of the West side and preparations are being made to accommodate a large crowd.

The Fraternal Brotherhood will hold its regular meeting tonight in the O. R. C. hall. Following the lodge meeting "hot eatings" will be served. All members of the Fraternal Brotherhood are urged to be present.
